Eight people have signed the list for an annual Bible Alive subscription, cost £29.99 for 11 issues. Copies have now been ordered and paid for. Hopefully they will arrive soon, and you will be able to collect your named copy each month from church.

Some thoughts for Sea Sunday - leaving port, going out

When a great ship is in harbor and moored, it is safe, there can be no doubt. But that is not what great ships are built for.
- C.P. Estes

*Lord Jesus, Give us the courage to accompany others, for in walking at their side, we find you there.
Give us joy that we might serve others, for in tending the wounds of those who suffer, we sense your healing presence at work in us.
Give us wisdom to speak out for others, for in defending the downtrodden we hear your voice speak up for us.
Grant that in all we that we do or say, we give you glory Lord.*

Jesuit Refugee Service prayer

*“Rivers do not drink their own water, and trees do not eat their own fruit.
The sun does not shine on itself,
and flowers do not spread their fragrance for themselves.*

Living for others is a rule of nature.

We are born to help each other no matter how difficult it is.

Life is good when we are happy, but much better when others are happy because of you.”

Pope Francis, 25 March, 2017

St Oliver Plunkett

The 1st of July was the feast day of this important saint. An interesting article on his life and death has been provided by a parishioner and can be forwarded to anyone who would like to receive a copy.

(Please give email address to Geoff, geoff.screeton42@gmail.com)

The article is a reminder of how much people in the past have suffered for their Catholic faith. We should also remember that millions of Catholics and other Christians still suffer severe persecution in many places today.
